

AURUS

Pop-up, Flexible Project Teams

Our ability to source pop-up project teams is well documented. Whether we bring together composite teams of tech expertise or we head-hunt a target team who have delivered a specific project, we can turn requests around within 2-4 days typically.

Our Aurus solution removes the common (often unfounded) objection that freelancers are a more expensive option. Pop-up teams up running, deliver programs faster and reduce risk with our proven process.
